99 YEARS AND COUNTING

Zozobra is the creation of Will Shuster, one of Los Cinco Pintores, a group of artists who made their way to New Mexico in the 1920s. Shuster's creation first burned in his backyard in 1924 as a 6-foot effigy, and over the years, has grown to a towering 50-foot high marionette.

Made of wood, wire and cotton cloth and stuffed with hundreds of bags of shredded paper, Zozobra is a dark and eerie character, part ghost and part monster. Since those early days, the people of Santa Fe, families and friends new and old, have annually made their way to Fort Marcy Park, near the historic Santa Fe Plaza, to view this one-of-a-kind Labor Day Friday pageant.

WHO IS KIWANIS?

Kiwanis International is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world one child and one community at a time. For more than a century, Kiwanis has created opportunities for children to be curious, safe and healthy regardless of the community in which they live.

Founded in 1921, the Kiwanis Club of Santa Fe is the city's oldest service organization. Since 1964, when Zozobra's creator Will Shuster gave Kiwanis the rights to Zozobra in perpetuity, the Burning of Zozobra has faithfully continued the tradition and raised more than $1.8 million to help kids learn, experience, dream, grow, succeed and thrive.

The Burning of Zozobra is a unique opportunity to be a part of one of the biggest events in New Mexico, and at the same time, to be a part of a greater good!

LOOKING OUT FOR SANTA FE

Sustainability at Zozobra is a valued Bylaw of the Kiwanis Club of Santa Fe. Club members consistently strive to make Zozobra a green event by recycling and sourcing locally to the greatest degree possible. In cooperation with the Santa Fe Chapter of the New Mexico Green Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis has pledged to annually review all aspects of Zozobra's environmental footprint:

- Food and merchandise vendors must provide recyclable or biodegradable utensils, vessels, cups, and packaging.
- Styrofoam and plastic packaging are not permitted, aluminum wrapping required for food and refillable cups encouraged.
- The Santa Fe Green Chamber of Commerce partners with Kiwanis to recruit volunteers to man refillable water stations.
- Advertising encourages attendees to bring refillable water bottles. Commercial plastic water bottles are not permitted.
- Vendors in grassy areas must place tarpaper under tents to preserve the grass.
- When delivering and removing the entertainment stage for Zozobra, contractors lay down plywood to protect the field.
- Santa Fe Beautiful ensures adequate recycling bins of on-site and volunteers from the Santa Fe Green Chamber of Commerce help sort recyclables.
- Attendees at points south encouraged to ride NM Railrunner; Kiwanis holds and pays for last post-event train in order to reduce vehicular traffic.
- Zozobra attendees are encouraged to utilize the free shuttles to and from the event to maximize carbon savings.
- Bike Santa Fe volunteers provide free secure bike racks to encourage attendees to bike to Zozobra.
- Zozobra merchandise sales packaged in reusable bags.
- Washable plant-based chalk paint used for all markings.
- All event banners are designed to be reusable year after year.
- Public information delivered about the event is primarily electronic.
- Kiwanis partners with the Santa Fe Public Schools to teach kids about sustainability and climate change.
- After evaluation of Zozobra's carbon footprint--construction, equipment, and fireworks--by an independent contractor, Kiwanis uses the estimates to allocate funds and provide trees for Santa Fe youth to plant in order to offset Zozobra's carbon output and educate our youth on being responsible stewards of the environment.

WHY SPONSOR?

The Burning of Zozobra is one of New Mexico's most historic events. Over 1,000 volunteers spend thousands of hours to present this iconic tradition.

In 2019, a crowd of almost 64,000 attended the event. In 2020, despite the pandemic, Zozobra was the only live event safely produced in New Mexico, televised and streamed without live attendance. In 2021, the televised streamed event safely welcomed back a limited in-person audience. In 2022, the 98th Burning welcomed a record-breaking crowd of over 70,000 and Zozobra is on track for a great 99th event, en route to a gala 100th anniversary in 2024.

Zozobra makes local, regional and national news. By burn time, social media is off the charts, and hotels and restaurants are full of travelers eager for new adventures. Cultivating strong partnerships boosts Zozobra's charitable mission and elevates this treasured event as a global destination experience.
